How small charities are creating huge impact

Spring 2021

SPRING INTO FUNDRAISING

St Giles Animal Rescue brought in over £7600 during January by reaching out to their loyal supporters and encouraging much needed donations to the cause. Using a well placed DONATE™ button linked directly to their campaign page, the Centre was able to direct supporters and ensure a frictionless transaction.

A great start to the year.

A PLAYFUL CAMPAIGN FOR ESSENTIAL ITEMS

Central Church launched their Project Pants campaign to donate new and good quality underwear across Edinburgh this winter. As well as encouraging individuals to donate physical items, cashless donations were also collected via the campaign webpage links, QR codes and text numbers. Raising £3379 through DONATE™ which was added to the total used to distribute over 34,000 items of underwear.

SUPER CYCLING FUNDRAISER

Club member Nick set himself the challenge of cycling the distance of Lands End to John O'Groats on his exercise bike and using the opportunity to raise funds for Keynsham and District Mencap Society. Hoping to raise £500 by Easter, the campaign has already raised £3,965 through the DONATE™ web and text channels promoted by Nick himself.

SNAPPY TEXTING FOR ANIMAL CONSERVATION

The Crocodiles of the World Foundation has been busy raising funds for the upkeep and conservation of the animals during the Zoo's closure. Promoting DONATE™ text channels on the website and social media channels has so far raised £1700 to secure the future of some of the world's most endangered species.
